

South Bay Sale

By
RUPERT
HUGHES

"LOS ANGELES!" the sneering preacher cried, as Jonah might have whinnied "Nineveh!" and with equal scorn. "The Spanish missionaries may have called it the City of Angels; but the moving pictures have changed its name to Los Diablos! For it is the central factory of Satan and his minions, the enemy of our homes, the corrupter of our young men and women—the school of crime. Unless it reforms—and soon! surely, in God's good time, the ocean will rise and swallow it!"

Though he was three thousand miles and more away—as far away, indeed, as the shores of Massachusetts are from the California shore—the Reverend Doctor Stedden was so convinced by his own prophetic ire that he would hardly have been surprised to read in the Monday morning's paper that a benevolent earthquake had taken his hint and shrugged the new Babylon off into the Pacific sea.

VAINEST OF FOLLIES.

But of all follies, cursing cities is the vainest. And Los Angeles lived on, quite unaware that its crimes were being denounced in the far-off town of Calverly. The sun itself took three hours to make the trip, and though it was black night outside the little church in Calverly, it was just sunset in Los Angeles.

There was a scarlet fire along the oceans, whose lacy waves stroked the coast with lake-like calm. Over the wide-sprawled city was a smooth sky all of a banana yellow, save for a stain of red grapes at the hem where the sky went down behind the sea-wall of the Santa Monica Mountains.

Among the multitudinous gardens, along the palm-plummed avenues, the twilight loathed. The day seemed to be entangled among the jewel-hung citruses, the fig trees, the papyrus clusters among the hedges forming with a surf of Shasta daisies, the spendthrift waste of yearlong roses, and the smother of vines rolling up white walls in contrary cascades and spilling a froth of flowers along the roofs of many-colored tile.

To the north lay Hollywood, the particular Hades of the cinemaphobes, but curiously enough demure and innocent in the sunset.

From certain surfaces there and in Culver City, the light was flashed back with heliographic brilliance—from acres on acres of the glass walls and roofs of huge factories, strange workshops where the enlaved sun and the chained lightning wrote stories in photographs. Millions of miles of tiny pictures were taken at the rate of a thousand a minute. Tons of spooled romance went rolling all over the world so that the girl and boy who embraced before one camera were later observed by coolies in Shantung, by the Bisharin of Egypt, and the sundry peoples of Somaliland, Chikook and Jeddah—where not wherever the sun traveled and the moon reigned, they could watch this reeled minstrel gleaming for the delight and indignation of mankind.

Even when the sun had left this capital of the new art, some of the studios would glow on with a

MORVICH IS FAVORED IN DERBY

Churchill Downs, Louisville, Ky., May 13—The race is on.

With the great, unbroken Morvich ruling a strong favorite, the forty-eighth annual running of the Kentucky Derby, got underway. Eight thoroughbreds oppose the wonder horse of the year in this classic of the American turf. Thousands of horse enthusiasts—ranging from the wealthy owners and breeders down to the most ragged race track hanger-on, thrill in anticipation of the great event. Hundreds of stamming-owned women also rim the track, waving the colors of the range who have won their favor. Excitement is intense, and the entire gathering fretful for the award of the barrier that sends the glowering animals on their flying way.

Further details on the great race will be found on the sport pages.

ITALY TO PROCLAIM TRIESTE FREE PORT

Trieste, May 13.—King Victor Emmanuel of Italy will arrive here on May 21 to proclaim Trieste a free port.

Trieste lies on the western side of the Adriatic peninsula, Fiume on the eastern side. Formerly it was an Austro-Hungarian naval base, but the Adriatic peninsula was awarded to Italy by the Peace Conference.

ONE DEAD, 25 HURT IN LEHIGH WRECK

Batavia, N. Y., May 13.—The eastbound Black Diamond express of the Lehigh Valley Railroad was wrecked today near North Leray when it struck an automobile at a grade crossing. One man, the driver of the automobile, is dead, according to divisional headquarters of the railroad company at Buffalo, and 25 passengers on the train injured. The locomotive and three cars of the train were derailed by the crash.

BOSTON AMERICAN

LARGEST EVENING CIRCULATION IN NEW ENGLAND

VOL. 19—No. 47 BOSTON, SATURDAY, MAY 13, 1922 REGISTERED IN U. S. POST OFFICE PRICE THREE CENTS

FINAL EDITION

E. BOSTON BUILDING BOOM

SCHOOLBOY BOYS RIVAL

BOOM IN E. BOSTON FOR MRS. COOK

Boston American Helps in Plan to Erect 100 Two-Family Houses

As a result of efforts quickly made during the past two weeks by the Boston American, the announcement is made today that the construction of 100 two-family houses will be started in East Boston almost immediately.

This work will be done by the East Boston Land Company, of which ex-Governor Eugene N. Pess is a director, and represents his company in the attempt to solve the housing and unemployment problems.

The ship was taken as a result of the successful attempt by Mayor James M. Curley to settle labor troubles in the building trades. The only difficulties that have not been straightened out are those between master painters and their employees.

A conference was held for Monday morning at City Hall between Mayor Curley and former Governor Pess. Letters have been received from E. A. Flynn and Joseph H. O'Neill, president of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America.

While Carpenter was known Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Mr. Hearst's Idea of Right Man for Governor of New York State

Mr. Hearst gave no interview to the United Press. He gave them in Chicago the following written statement, which was largely varied in the article sent out as an interview:

To the United Press: I am sorry that I cannot answer your questions about politics definitely. I have been out West on my ranch. I am going to New York now to find "what all the shooting is about."

I see that Mr. Connors has named me for the governorship. Mr. Connors is one of the best men in the world, and one of the most loyal friends. In fact, he is so loyal and big hearted that I am afraid he sees everything with a little prejudice in favor of his friends. I want to have a talk with Mr. Connors.

My idea of the man for the Democrats to nominate for Governor is Mayor Hylan. He is a splendid man—a true Democrat in the broad sense of the word, an earnest, faithful public official and capable executive.

His policies are sound, his popularity is proved. He is the antithesis, the diametrical opposite of Governor Miller—and that is the greatest compliment I can pay him. Governor Miller is representative of a new element in our public life, of men who are openly and avowedly in the service of the big interests, men who have a cynical contempt for the public, men who believe that there is a superior class and that it is entitled to superior privileges, men who believe that the government should be run by this superior class for the promotion and protection of those superior privileges, men who think that the citizenship exists not to govern but to be governed, not to progress and prosper, but to be exploited.

Their only interest in the public is contained in the query, "How do the people get the money we take away from them?" This arrogant, un-American attitude on the part of public servants owing allegiance to the big interests is a genuine danger to our republican institutions.

It is the beginning of autocracy, that curse of older countries. It is the beginning of the end of democracy. It should be fought to a finish before it gains a foothold.

I am doing my best to fight it in my capacity as journalist. That way would seem to me the best and most effective way for me to carry on the campaign in defense of the exploited and in defiance of the exploiters, on behalf of honest property earners and property owners as against the bullying, black-jacking big interests.

Of course, any one who dares to take a stand against the aggressions of privilege nowadays is called a Bolshevik or an Anarchist or a Socialist or a Communist. I am not any of those things. I think I am just a plain American. I believe in our American system, and I do not want to see it destroyed. I believe in our republican institutions, and I do not want to see them undermined. I believe in the rights of property, but more in the rights of property which is earned than in the rights of property which is stolen.

At any rate, I am not in favor of the establishment of a special class with the privilege to plunder. That is too radical for me—too radical a departure from our American policies and precedents.

I believe that the equal rights, the equal opportunities, the equality before the law, which have been the foundation of our progress and prosperity as a nation and of our contentment as

TRAGEDY IN FIGHT FOR GIRL

Haverhill Youth Held for Man-slaughter After Victim is Found Dead in Bed

Haverhill, May 13.—Rivalry over the companionship of a girl, and jealousy over the fact that the girl had accepted an invitation to a school dance led to the death of one 19-year-old boy and the arrest of another of the same age for manslaughter today.

Herman Taber of School Street, Groveland, is the victim. He was found dead in his bed this morning by his brother.

Paul Clavidge of No. 11 Whittier Turn Over

OPEN TONIGHT

The Following Stores

SATURDAY NIGHT

Department Stores

Men's Clothing

Men's Hats and Gloves

Credit Clothing

Men's and Women's Shoes

Furniture

Pianos and Phonographs

Jewelry

Army Supplies

THE WEATHER

Boston and vicinity: Fair; not much change in temperature tonight and Monday; light variable winds. Sun rises at 5:53; sets at 7:57. High tide at 1:23 a. m.; 1:57 p. m. Temperatures: Maximum, 59 at 3 p. m.; minimum, 53 at 7 a. m.; average till 11 a. m., 57. Light all vehicles at 8:23 p. m.

SLAP IN FACE WINS FILM QUEEN DIVORCE

Los Angeles, May 13.—Bette Grödes, motion picture actress, in private life Jeanette Johnson, was granted a divorce here from William H. Johnson, her erstwhile husband, who she charged with having slapped her, having been rude to her and with being addicted to intoxicants. The divorce was granted by Judge J. P. Parsons, motion picture actor, who said her estate valued at $150,000.

HARPER HILL SCHOOL BOY IS FOUND DEAD AFTER FIGHT OVER GRAPES

Dandelion a Fruit? New Volstead Query Made

Hartford, May 13.—Are juices from dandelion blossoms and rhubarb stalks "fruit juices" within the meaning of the Volstead Act? United States Internal Revenue collector Robert O. Eaton has asked his superiors this question.

The Volstead Act permits heads of families, upon notifying the collector, to make a maximum of 200 gallons of "fruit juices." The office is flooded with notices of intent to make "fruit juice" from dandelion blossoms and rhubarb.

The girl in the case over whom the two boys had a rough and tumble fight on Elm street, is Miss Margaret Senter of West Newbury.

Young Glardine was arrested in district court before Judge Winslow was held in $1,000 bail for a hearing a week from today.

It is claimed there has been trouble between the two boys since a short time ago Miss Senter transferred her affection from young Glardine to Taylor.

Last night, Glardine's claim, she detected Glardine's invitation to a dance in Essex Hall to go to a high school dance in Essex Hall with Taylor.

The police say that after the school dance, Taylor escorted the girl to her home in West Newbury and then took a car back to Taylor's home. He got off at Elm street.

According to Glardine's story, he met young Taylor on Elm street near McDonald's garage. He claims he saw Taylor, thinking him a chance to speak, Taylor began to abuse him, calling him names and insulting him.

Glardine landed a second blow at Taylor's chin, and the blow flew at second time. The back of his head struck the sidewalk, a resounding crack, and he lay there unconscious.

Glardine was arrested by the police, and he was taken to the residence of Curtis Carter, Esq., and Dr. Shapiro was summoned.

Glardine fractured. The physician treated the boy, who seemed to regain his consciousness, and finally declared he was able to walk home.

Taylor did walk home. He said nothing about the row to his father, but went straight to bed. It was said that Taylor was in bed, and he found him dead.

A physician was summoned and verified the fact that he was dead. The medical examiner was notified. He said death was due to a fracture of the skull. An autopsy was performed.

The medical examiner notified the police who at once went to Glardine's home and found him dead.

Glardine's story of attack on GIRL'S STORY OF ATTACK. A FAKE, POLICE SAY. Police who have investigated the story, which was reported by a man named of Dorchester told of a man who attacked her with a club and she was entering her home, declared today that the entire story was a fabrication.

THREE CONFESS

CHARGE SHREWSBURY WOMAN BURNED

Shrewsbury, May 13.—The local police and officials of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals are today investigating charges that a woman had burned a dog to death.

On the strength of that Justice O'Keefe understood is an industrial engineer, although he has neglected his profession of late years for the development of financial means.

He used to own a yacht and among his hobbies was his collection of Dukes of Manchester, who was honored to be invited for a long cruise.

He was associated in business deals with the late Charles T. Yerkes of New York, and his business scheme for coining money have carried him to the heart of London to the city of the world.

He had from Boston after the House of Representatives had been elected to the House of Representatives.

The "Wallington" of real life is said to have jumped his head in the door of his home and been killed.

His associates are being prepared and he may be brought back to this city. All the newspapers are now carrying the story of his death.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

WOMAN LOCKS CONSTABLE WITH WRIT IN CLOSET

Worcester, May 13.—Constable J. C. Wheeler went to the home of Mrs. M. J. Wheeler to serve a writ in a case of domestic violence.

He was associated in business deals with the late Charles T. Yerkes of New York, and his business scheme for coining money have carried him to the heart of London to the city of the world.

He used to own a yacht and among his hobbies was his collection of Dukes of Manchester, who was honored to be invited for a long cruise.

He was associated in business deals with the late Charles T. Yerkes of New York, and his business scheme for coining money have carried him to the heart of London to the city of the world.

He had from Boston after the House of Representatives had been elected to the House of Representatives.

The "Wallington" of real life is said to have jumped his head in the door of his home and been killed.

His associates are being prepared and he may be brought back to this city. All the newspapers are now carrying the story of his death.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

WOMAN LOCKS CONSTABLE WITH WRIT IN CLOSET

Worcester, May 13.—Constable J. C. Wheeler went to the home of Mrs. M. J. Wheeler to serve a writ in a case of domestic violence.

He was associated in business deals with the late Charles T. Yerkes of New York, and his business scheme for coining money have carried him to the heart of London to the city of the world.

He used to own a yacht and among his hobbies was his collection of Dukes of Manchester, who was honored to be invited for a long cruise.

He was associated in business deals with the late Charles T. Yerkes of New York, and his business scheme for coining money have carried him to the heart of London to the city of the world.

He had from Boston after the House of Representatives had been elected to the House of Representatives.

The "Wallington" of real life is said to have jumped his head in the door of his home and been killed.

His associates are being prepared and he may be brought back to this city. All the newspapers are now carrying the story of his death.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

WOMAN LOCKS CONSTABLE WITH WRIT IN CLOSET

Worcester, May 13.—Constable J. C. Wheeler went to the home of Mrs. M. J. Wheeler to serve a writ in a case of domestic violence.

He was associated in business deals with the late Charles T. Yerkes of New York, and his business scheme for coining money have carried him to the heart of London to the city of the world.

He used to own a yacht and among his hobbies was his collection of Dukes of Manchester, who was honored to be invited for a long cruise.

He was associated in business deals with the late Charles T. Yerkes of New York, and his business scheme for coining money have carried him to the heart of London to the city of the world.

He had from Boston after the House of Representatives had been elected to the House of Representatives.

The "Wallington" of real life is said to have jumped his head in the door of his home and been killed.

His associates are being prepared and he may be brought back to this city. All the newspapers are now carrying the story of his death.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

WOMAN LOCKS CONSTABLE WITH WRIT IN CLOSET

Worcester, May 13.—Constable J. C. Wheeler went to the home of Mrs. M. J. Wheeler to serve a writ in a case of domestic violence.

He was associated in business deals with the late Charles T. Yerkes of New York, and his business scheme for coining money have carried him to the heart of London to the city of the world.

He used to own a yacht and among his hobbies was his collection of Dukes of Manchester, who was honored to be invited for a long cruise.

He was associated in business deals with the late Charles T. Yerkes of New York, and his business scheme for coining money have carried him to the heart of London to the city of the world.

He had from Boston after the House of Representatives had been elected to the House of Representatives.

The "Wallington" of real life is said to have jumped his head in the door of his home and been killed.

His associates are being prepared and he may be brought back to this city. All the newspapers are now carrying the story of his death.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

WOMAN LOCKS CONSTABLE WITH WRIT IN CLOSET

Worcester, May 13.—Constable J. C. Wheeler went to the home of Mrs. M. J. Wheeler to serve a writ in a case of domestic violence.

He was associated in business deals with the late Charles T. Yerkes of New York, and his business scheme for coining money have carried him to the heart of London to the city of the world.

He used to own a yacht and among his hobbies was his collection of Dukes of Manchester, who was honored to be invited for a long cruise.

He was associated in business deals with the late Charles T. Yerkes of New York, and his business scheme for coining money have carried him to the heart of London to the city of the world.

He had from Boston after the House of Representatives had been elected to the House of Representatives.

The "Wallington" of real life is said to have jumped his head in the door of his home and been killed.

His associates are being prepared and he may be brought back to this city. All the newspapers are now carrying the story of his death.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

WOMAN LOCKS CONSTABLE WITH WRIT IN CLOSET

Worcester, May 13.—Constable J. C. Wheeler went to the home of Mrs. M. J. Wheeler to serve a writ in a case of domestic violence.

He was associated in business deals with the late Charles T. Yerkes of New York, and his business scheme for coining money have carried him to the heart of London to the city of the world.

He used to own a yacht and among his hobbies was his collection of Dukes of Manchester, who was honored to be invited for a long cruise.

He was associated in business deals with the late Charles T. Yerkes of New York, and his business scheme for coining money have carried him to the heart of London to the city of the world.

He had from Boston after the House of Representatives had been elected to the House of Representatives.

The "Wallington" of real life is said to have jumped his head in the door of his home and been killed.

His associates are being prepared and he may be brought back to this city. All the newspapers are now carrying the story of his death.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

He was a man of many talents and his death is a great loss to the world. His death is a great loss to the world.

DRUG PEDLARS FIND PREY IN SCHOOLS

Student Arrested in the Act of Selling Cocaine on College Campus

By WINNIFRED BLACK.
Washington, May 13.—Your boy, are they going to be drawn into the narcotic drug net in spite of everything?

Not if President Harding says. He told the drug ring in making do, "Remain and systematic attempts to get new customers by teaching high school boys and girls in Colorado the 'dope habit'."

"Dope pedlars" around the downtown high schools all day long. That's what the Grand Jury report says.

OPERATE IN Y. M. C. A.
Well, what of it? Does it surprise you? Why should it? Everyone who has made any serious study of the dope will have known that for a long time.

San Francisco found one of the worst criminals in America, selling morphine, heroin and cocaine on the steps of one of the high school buildings, and the Federal authorities arrested a man selling dope in the Y. M. C. A. recreation hall.

The students at the University of Colorado were arrested in the very act of selling cocaine on the campus. He told those to whom he was trying to sell it that it would help them pass examinations and speed them up in all their college work.

SENATE PASSES BILL KEEPLING DRUG TRAFFIC
Washington, May 13.—The illicit drug traffic in the United States has been dealt its death blow.

Putting in its consideration of the tariff, the Senate passed the Miller anti-narcotics bill, which went through the House last week.

There was no roll-call; the measure being adopted by acclamation. It now goes to the White House, where President Harding will attach his signature as soon as he returns from his week-end trip to New Jersey.

The passage of the bill took but a few minutes. Senator Curtis of Kansas, in charge of the measure, asked for consent to have it taken up between latitudes 34 and 35.

It was not a dissenting voice, and the vote followed without debate after Senator Curtis had spoken briefly in explanation.

A fine of $500 and imprisonment of ten years is provided for violations of the proposed law. This penalty would apply to any person who smuggles in drugs or has any connection with their handling after they are brought in. Summary seizure and confiscation is provided in case of smuggled drugs being discovered.

NOT A CHANCE IN R. I.
ROULETTE, SAYS VICTIM
Providence, May 13.—Playing a roulette wheel at the Hilling Inn at East Greenwich, R. I., was not indulging in a game of chance, according to a brief filed in United States District Court by Henry E. Woodward, attorney for Edward T. Bannon of New Bedford who says he lost $400,000 at the gambling resort.

The wheel was so manipulated that Bannon never had a chance. It was a case of "heads you win, tails I lose," Attorney Woodward said.

TEACHER TAUGHT SEX
PARENTS FORCE TRIAL
Morgantown, N. Y., May 13.—Charles W. Alexander, a teacher, was preferred against Alvin White, teacher in the grammar school, by disapproving parents of his pupils.

White, who is married, will be tried.

J. F. STEVENS MOURNED
BY BUILDING TRADES
Delegates of the United Building Trades Council advised resolutions upon the recent death of John F. Stevens of Boston, a member of the board of trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway.

Arboretum Lilies Sunday
Tomorrow is Lilies Sunday at the Arnold Arboretum. The lilies are reported to be especially abundant and beautiful this year, and their perfume unusually sweet. The crab apple trees are also in bloom.

The Boston American
Published by the Boston American Publishing Company.
Entered as second class matter June 4, 1907, at the postoffice at Boston, Mass.

FALL RIVER PUPILS
THREATEN TO STRIKE
Fall River, May 13.—If the school board insists on the resignation of Principal Eugene Cox of the Westport High School, they need not bother to engage a new principal, for there will not be any scholars to teach, the pupils of the high school say. If the principal goes, they will go with him, they state.

SAYS WIFE HIT HIM
IN FACE WITH MOP
Providence, May 13.—George N. P. of the city of Bristol, who is suing for divorce from Susan Tuttle on the ground of cruelty, told Judge Taylor that his wife had struck him in the face with a mop and abused him in other ways.

Used Soap Powder to Get Footprints of Theft Suspect

Woman Is Own Sleuth, Gets Suspect

How an ordinary man of cleaning powder was used by a young housewife to effect the capture of an alleged thief who was described at the trial of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

WOMAN IS OWN SLEUTH, GETS SUSPECT

How an ordinary man of cleaning powder was used by a young housewife to effect the capture of an alleged thief who was described at the trial of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

Even England Reads Boston American's Radio Column

The popularity of the Boston American's radio column has spread even across the Atlantic. Over in England a would-be radio fan wrote a letter, which was received by the American today, mentioning the radio column, and begging for more information about radio receiving sets.

The letter was from G. R. Old, of No. 3 Brookfield Terrace, Whitechurch, England.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

There was a nice fingerprint in the powder.

She then called Sergeant Winslow of the Stratton Square Station, and the two, according to her story, obtained one of Mrs. Kate's shoes and a long purple plume, told on the witness stand how she had raised two silk shirts, several pieces of patch silk, twenty-five yards of sheeting and a pearl necklace from her apartment. She decided to set a trap for the thief.

St. Mrs. Simonneau took a can of cleanser and sprinkled it liberally on the inner door jam of her apartment. The case will probably go to the jury Monday.

GALLIVAN ASKS HALIFAX GRANT HUB TO FIGHT FOR HOSPITAL FISHERMEN

Washington, May 13.—Representative Gallivan of Boston has called on the medical societies and business and commercial organizations in Boston to get busy if they hope to land for the Metropolitan district the $150,000 neuro-psychiatric hospital that is to be located in New England.

Mr. Gallivan was advised by Colonel Charles R. Forbes, director of the Veterans Bureau, that the site has not yet been selected, but indicates it will be built in Western Massachusetts.

The South Boston Congressmen believes nevertheless it may be possible to convince Director Forbes that it should go to Boston. The site will be definitely settled upon as soon as the Hospital Appropriation bill is recently passed becomes a law.

HALIFAX GRANT TO AID RACING FISHERMEN

Halifax, N. S., May 13.—When William Tuft, M. P. for Lunenburg, N. S., rose in Parliament and requested a grant of $5,000 to encourage sailing races between the deep sea fishing vessels of Canada and those of other nations, he raised the question whether the Government should aid an international contest which may delay progress by encouraging sail versus mechanical power.

Mr. Tuft told the House that two sailing vessels had been built in New England and two in Nova Scotia during the past winter to compete in the international ocean races to be held off Gloucester this fall.

When these races were instituted New England had practically ceased to build fishing vessels relying actively on sail, and in Nova Scotia, too, the newer fishing vessels were built in New England last winter.

Society Gets Silly to Win Attention, Says Frenchman

By Cosmopolitan News Service.
New York, May 13.—"Society, shown at its ugliest and desperate for attention, is becoming silly," says Andre Tridon, eminent French author and modernist. "The American can make sense, wise in this, are fast turning into fortune hunters—factory boys dreaming of marrying rich old bums, cash girls aspiring to dapper moneyed divorced men."

There are only four classes for the wealthy woman, become a movie star, become a sensational philanthropist, create a scandal or be ignored. Of these scandals is the most convenient."

being equipped with motor engines and regulars in addition to sails. It had not been for the international race it is pretty safe to say that no fishing vessels without auxiliary mechanical power would have been built in New England last winter.

$500,000 FOR GRAFT PROBE APPROVED

By Universal Service.
Washington, May 13.—The special fund of $500,000, asked by Attorney General Daugherty for prosecuting war frauds was formally approved by a House appropriations subcommittee and the bill providing for the appropriation was sent to the print.

Today the subcommittee will report their recommendation to the full committee, which is expected to unanimously order the bill favorably reported to the House.

Republican Leader Mandell announced an adjournment of the House that the measure will be passed Monday. The other bill advocated by Mr. Daugherty, creating an additional Grand Jury in the District of Columbia, also will be passed Monday, the Republican leader stated.

Democratic leaders announced that their side will support the appropriation. This action is necessary to fortify the minority's future position. It was explained.

Women's Silk Fibre Undervests, 1.10

Drop stitch pattern, bodice top, silk ribbon shoulder straps. Pink and white.

Jordan Marsh Company Great Basement Store

The Famous Store Within a Store
For the Sale of the Most Expensive Merchandise

Regular Lines of Goods

In addition to the many bargain lots, we carry full lines of Regular Goods in Every Department at prices averaging a slow as, or lower than, elsewhere.

Smart New Unlined Tweed Suits

Wonderful Value at 8.75

Tuxedo or tailored style, in sport length. This coat can be used as a separate sport coat. Tan, rose, and blue.

Long Line Tweeds, 38-in. coat, with the popular narrow sleeve and shoulder; either link or three button fastening and notch collar; also hand tailored lining. Tan, copen, rose and navy 16.50

Blue Serge Suits, medium length coats, with braid and embroidered braid; silk lined 12.75

Navy and black 12.75

Separate Knickers in Khaki, 4.98

Charge Accounts

This is one of the many advantages of shopping in our Great Basement Store—the same privilege of charge accounts as enjoyed by the patrons of our Upstairs Store.

This privilege, together with our 65 complete stocks of merchandise and special underripped lots, make our Basement Store the best place to shop.

Many Other Equally Good Values will be on sale beginning Monday throughout our Great Basement Store.

Striking Values In Fur Chokers

Natural Mink Chokers, made of two skins. 22.50

Jap Mink Chokers, two skins, in fine dark skins. 15.00

Wolf Scarfs, blue and brown, in extra large size. 22.50

Natural Squirrel Chokers, a great value at. 6.75

American Opossum Chokers, an excellent buy at. 3.50

Here's a Value That Will Surprise Even the Most Thrifty

New Silk Dresses

At This Very Modest Price

15

Crepe de Chines and Cantons—several styles, many only one of a kind. The popular straight line models—smart pants and tunics—steel, jet and bugle bead trimmings—on embroidered effects. Navy Blue, black, brown and many light shades. Sizes 36 to 44.

Women's Tuxedo Styles Silk Fibre Sweaters

Special Value at 3.98

In desirable fancy weaves, made with sash and pockets. In black, navy and other good colors. Sizes 36 to 44.

Special Saving on These Chic Summer Hats

3.49

Dainty Taffeta, Georgette and Smart Sport Hats

Variety of pretty new colorings and shapes, some with embroidered crown, trimmed with flowers, fancies and ornaments.

Smart-Looking Polaire COATS

Great Value at 18.50

Excellent coats at this modest price. Fully silk lined, 45 inches long. Several very desirable models from which to choose.

Women's Satin Skirts

In a good assortment of effective looking sports models 6.95

Women's Tuxedo Styles Silk Fibre Sweaters

Special Value at 3.98

In desirable fancy weaves, made with sash and pockets. In black, navy and other good colors. Sizes 36 to 44.

Special Saving on These Chic Summer Hats

3.49

Dainty Taffeta, Georgette and Smart Sport Hats

Variety of pretty new colorings and shapes, some with embroidered crown, trimmed with flowers, fancies and ornaments.

POPS BEGIN THIRD WEEK MONDAY

Warm Weather Drawing Big Crowds to Symphony Hall to Hear Concerts

The warmer weather is bringing all Boston to the Pop Concerts at Symphony Hall.

Special nights of interest in this week are Radcliffe College night on Tuesday, May 16th, with numbers by the Radcliffe chorus under Dr. A. T. Davidson and by Laura L. Bedford, soprano, who is a Radcliffe graduate, and Boston City Club night on Thursday, May 18th, Wednesday, May 17th is Wagner night.

Benefit for Actors' Fund Big Success

The Actors' Fund Benefit, held at the Tremont Theatre yesterday afternoon, was nothing less than a limited vaudeville performance with all the stars and their chorus in reach for the headline position—and all deserving it.

HALF WARD ANNOUNCES

Half Ward, well known to theatrical circles in this city, was the announcer for yesterday's bill, Miss Nancy Gibbs and Pierre de Ruyter gave "Musical Moments," in which the former sang and the latter played a violin solo. Bard and Pearl in "Nothing But Laughs" and Val and Ruth in "Follies" provided endless fun with comedy, most of which was on the play of words.

TEACHER TWINS BACK TO BB IN WINCHESTER

Arthur E. Butters, mathematics instructor, whose failure, along with nine other teachers in the Winchester public schools, to be re-elected for another year, stirred that aristocratic suburb several days ago, has been re-elected.

Likens Indian Leader Gandhi to Saviour

"The majority of Christians tend to regard Jesus as a saviour," declared Professor Clarence R. Skinner of Tufts College, speaking at a meeting of the Mahatma Gandhi World Peace movement at St. James Hall, "and in the same way, the Christian church for their own personal gain and the pure, simple Christianity of long ago is a saviour of the past."

STAGE STARS ASSIST AT TEA DANCING

Stage stars and society women took part in the tea dancing at the Copley Plaza for the benefit of the Women's Trades Union League. Miss Mary's "Gaily" and "The Diggers" assisted society matrons and Vincent Club girls.

GREEN OLIVES

Great, big, luscious green olives from Italy.

Toothsome green olives from Italy.

Do you like them?

Could you use some?

What would you do with them?

Would you like some?

If so, watch the BOSTON AMERICAN.

Little Beaumont Girl Who Danced at Edwards' Recital

Cecil Freedman

The recital which Miss Letitia Edwards gave at the Winthrop Theatre, yesterday afternoon, was given to secure funds to meet the annual expenses of the Boston City Club. A similar benefit was given in New York last week.

SOMERVILLE PLAYERS

which Edward J. Quigley is offering for the coming week by the Somerville Players at the Cary square playhouse. This drama, which is from the fertile pen of that young and most successful playwright, William Anthony Maguire, is a story of the divorcee and his consequent effect upon the children of the divorcee.

WILL HONOR GOLD STAR MOTHERS

Hundreds of disabled war veterans from Government hospitals in and around Boston will attend the Gold Star Mother exercises on Boston Common at the Parkman bandstand tomorrow afternoon, at 2 o'clock, under the auspices of the American Legion and the Veterans of America.

THE DIVORCE QUESTION

Coming—Week of May 22

"THE GHOST BETWEEN"

With the "GHOST BETWEEN" and "THE GHOST BETWEEN"

AT TEA DANCING

Stage stars and society women took part in the tea dancing at the Copley Plaza for the benefit of the Women's Trades Union League. Miss Mary's "Gaily" and "The Diggers" assisted society matrons and Vincent Club girls.

AT TEA DANCING

Stage stars and society women took part in the tea dancing at the Copley Plaza for the benefit of the Women's Trades Union League. Miss Mary's "Gaily" and "The Diggers" assisted society matrons and Vincent Club girls.

AT TEA DANCING

Stage stars and society women took part in the tea dancing at the Copley Plaza for the benefit of the Women's Trades Union League. Miss Mary's "Gaily" and "The Diggers" assisted society matrons and Vincent Club girls.

AT TEA DANCING

Stage stars and society women took part in the tea dancing at the Copley Plaza for the benefit of the Women's Trades Union League. Miss Mary's "Gaily" and "The Diggers" assisted society matrons and Vincent Club girls.

AT TEA DANCING

Stage stars and society women took part in the tea dancing at the Copley Plaza for the benefit of the Women's Trades Union League. Miss Mary's "Gaily" and "The Diggers" assisted society matrons and Vincent Club girls.

"WHIRL" TO REMAIN AT MAJESTIC

Big Winter Garden Show Holds Over Because of Packed Houses Last Week

There are so many good things in New York Winter Garden cameos, "The Whirl of New York" which is the big feature of the Majestic Theatre for the coming week, held over because of the tremendous success, that it is difficult to point at any one act as the most important or most popular one. To many, Kyra, is the one big splendid feature. Her several unique and inimitable dancing features are all equally staged and costumed. In her dance repertoire is a match dance, a dance of the sacred colors, and an Assyrian dance. Some patrons prefer the "nutty" gymnastic comedy of Roy Cummings, who falls in the orchestra pit headlong, slides on his ear, falls in and out of the scenery with reckless abandon.

For the two big Sunday concerts, tomorrow afternoon and evening at 3 and 5 p. m., will be seen: Roy Cummings, Noble and Co., Nipper Gibbs, Bard and Pearl, Keno and Green, Herbert Hoy, Purcella Bros., Clarence Harvey, Viola Vertruba, Florence Schubert, the Four Hops, Nelson Warner, Schibler, Circus, and the Shubert Weekly News.

THE WHIRL OF NEW YORK

in "FASCINATION"

AGNES AYRES in W. Somerset Maugham's "THE ORDEAL"

ALSO WEEKLY and COMEDY—AUGMENTED ORCHESTRA

THE WHIRL OF NEW YORK

in "FASCINATION"

AGNES AYRES in W. Somerset Maugham's "THE ORDEAL"

ALSO WEEKLY and COMEDY—AUGMENTED ORCHESTRA

THE WHIRL OF NEW YORK

in "FASCINATION"

AGNES AYRES in W. Somerset Maugham's "THE ORDEAL"

ALSO WEEKLY and COMEDY—AUGMENTED ORCHESTRA

THE WHIRL OF NEW YORK

in "FASCINATION"

AGNES AYRES in W. Somerset Maugham's "THE ORDEAL"

ALSO WEEKLY and COMEDY—AUGMENTED ORCHESTRA

THE WHIRL OF NEW YORK

in "FASCINATION"

AGNES AYRES in W. Somerset Maugham's "THE ORDEAL"

ALSO WEEKLY and COMEDY—AUGMENTED ORCHESTRA

THE WHIRL OF NEW YORK

in "FASCINATION"

AGNES AYRES in W. Somerset Maugham's "THE ORDEAL"

ALSO WEEKLY and COMEDY—AUGMENTED ORCHESTRA

THE WHIRL OF NEW YORK

in "FASCINATION"

AGNES AYRES in W. Somerset Maugham's "THE ORDEAL"

ALSO WEEKLY and COMEDY—AUGMENTED ORCHESTRA

THE WHIRL OF NEW YORK

in "FASCINATION"

AGNES AYRES in W. Somerset Maugham's "THE ORDEAL"

ALSO WEEKLY and COMEDY—AUGMENTED ORCHESTRA

PARK THEATRE
Positively Last Week
BIG SUNDAY CONCERT THROUGH
"Smilin' Through"
NORMA TALMADGE
"Smilin' Through"
A First National Attraction

LOEW'S STATE
NASSAUBUSETTS AVENUE
WEEK OF MAY 15
AN ENTICING ROMANCE OF TANKER PEP AND SPANISH PASSION
MAY MURRAY
"FASCINATION"
AGNES AYRES in W. Somerset Maugham's "THE ORDEAL"
ALSO WEEKLY and COMEDY—AUGMENTED ORCHESTRA

TREMONT THEATRE
THOMAS B. LOTHIAN, Manager
Even. at 8:10. Mat. Wed. & Sat. at 5:10
Monday at 8:10. Pop. Mat. Wed. Sat. 52
GEO. M. COHAN
(HIMSELF)
"The Tavern"
MR. COHAN APPEARS PERSONALLY IN HIS INIMITABLE CHARACTERIZATION OF "THE WAGON"

TEMPLE
NEXT MON. MAT.
ONE WEEK ONLY
RETURN ENGAGEMENT OF WILLIAM FOX'S WONDER PICTURE
OVER THE HILL
The Story of Mother Love Divine
ONE WEEK ONLY
SUMMER PRICES: 25c and 50c
(Includes War Tax)

LOEW'S ORPHEUM
CONSTANCE TALMADGE
"Smilin' Through"
A First National Attraction
Tremont Temple 8:10, 5:10, 10:10 P. M.
William Fox presents
"TOP-NOTCH" BURTON
"THE GREAT BROXOPP"
JAMES THEATRE
BOWDOIN SQ. THEATRE
BOSTON THEATRE
NANTASKET BEACH

GAYETY THEATRE
EVERYBODY IN BOSTON TRIED TO CROWD IN AT ONE TIME 2 WEEKS AGO. This Necessitated a Return Engagement for an Indefinite Period, STARTING MONDAY, MAY 15th, BARNEY GERARDS' '200000 PRODUCTION
FOLLIES OF THE DAY
WITH BOZO SNYDER The Man Who NEVER SPEAKS
CLASSICST FLAPPER CHORUS IN THE WORLD.
DON'T FOLLOW THE CROWD! GET AHEAD OF IT!!!
RESERVE YOUR SEATS NOW!

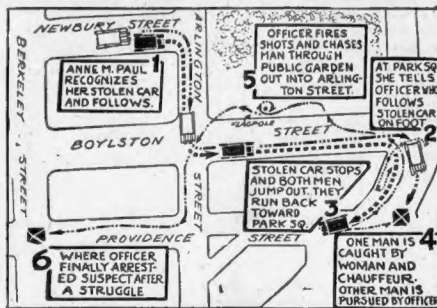

MAJESTIC
SHUBERT VAUDEVILLE
BIGGEST HIT OF THE SEASON
THE WHIRL OF NEW YORK
ROY CUMMINGS KYRA
NANCY GIBBS BARD & PEARL
KENO & GREEN HERBERT HOEY
PURCELLA BROS. CLARENCE HARVEY
VIOLA VERTRUBA FLORENCE SCHUBERT
TOMORROW at 3 and 8 P. M.
MAYNITES 25c and 50c
EVEN. 25c and 50c

SELWYN THEATRE
FRED E. WRIGHT, Manager
LAST WEEKS
MAMMOTH CONCERT
JEWISH WAR RELIEF
Stars and Players from
Current Attractions
UNDER AUSPICES OF Jewish Anti-Tuberculosis Society
SUNDAY TOM'W 8:10
COLONIAL THEATRE
MAMMOTH CONCERT
JEWISH WAR RELIEF
Stars and Players from
Current Attractions
UNDER AUSPICES OF Jewish Anti-Tuberculosis Society

THEATRE
FENWAY PARK
Today at 3:00 O'clock
RED SOX VS. CHICAGO
BUSHMAN & BAYNE
BOWDOIN SQ. THEATRE
BOSTON THEATRE
NANTASKET BEACH

CHARLOTTE WALKER
"FOUR HORSEMEN OF THE APOCALYPSE"
LANCASTER THEATRE
NANTASKET BEACH
STEAMERS FROM ROWS WHARF
PRICES: 25c, 50c, 75c, 1.00, 1.50, 2.00, 2.50, 3.00, 3.50, 4.00, 4.50, 5.00, 5.50, 6.00, 6.50, 7.00, 7.50, 8.00, 8.50, 9.00, 9.50, 10.00

PAIR CAUGHT IN CHASE FACE COURT---HUB STAGE IN PICTURES

ALL THE THRILLS OF AN OLD TIME MOVIE WERE CONTAINED IN THIS CHASE! AFTER THE EXCITEMENT was over John E. Black, 18, of Allston, and Adolph Scott, of Brighton, were under arrest, charged with the theft of an auto. Anne M. Paul of No. 9 Lyme street, Back Bay, recognized her stolen machine on Newbury street. Diagram shows how she followed in her car, notified the traffic officer, Robert Diaz, and the ensuing chase that followed. Her chauffeur, Otto W. Kinnear, aided her in capturing one of the suspects. The police allege the pair stole the car of the Rev. Father Donahue two weeks ago.

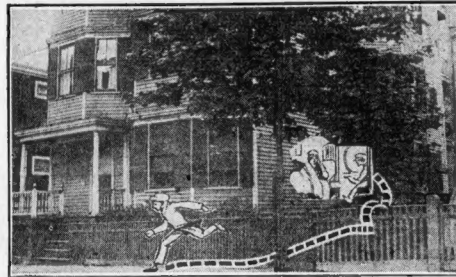

THE SLOT companies are still gumming up the works! They are penny wise and pound foolish if they believe the public will submit to business as usual forever. How often have you put in a cent and "got the air?" Here is one Boston girl who complains that it's a real thing to lose both cent and air. Tell your Legislator about it.

TWO-STEP UP TO THE WILBUR THEATRE AND see Eleanor Griffith, above, in "The Last Waltz." One of the most charming of the musical plays in town. Don't wait for "The Last Waltz"—see it now!

A CRYSTAL GAZER STARTS A LOT of gazing! Betty Williams, one of the bright lights in "Sally," at the Colonial, is declared by Flo Ziegfeld to possess one of the most beautiful figures on the American stage. She is an expert swimmer. A student of advertising—NOT publicity.

SHRILL SCREAMS PIERCING THROUGH THE NIGHT SAVED Mrs. Grace Hazman of No. 24 Antrim street, Cambridge, from possible attack and robbery. Photo-diagram shows how intruder opened window and attempted to enter. Her yells awakened her husband. The intrusion made her hysterical.

SHIRLEY WARDE, A TALENTED and well cast player in "Smooth as Silk," the thriller at the Sabryn Theatre.

WANDA BORGATTI OF NO. 324 Court street, Plymouth, today's winner of the $5 award as the Pretty Knicker Girl. Address: Fictorial Editor, Boston American.

PROVING THAT COLLEGE GIRLS ARE PLAYFUL! Mt. Holyoke College seniors on upper-class play day, fantastically dressed to represent persons who have graduated from college and who came back with their husbands to visit. (Keystone.)

IF THE GOVERNMENT DOESN'T APPRECIATE ITS heroes—the kids do! Little Paul Featherstone passing out cigarettes to Joseph Murphy, wounded war vet, and his pals at Parker Hill Hospital.

Putting the in Taxes!

TAXES 1922 $91.39
PREVIOUS TAXES ABOUT $73.00

TAXATION IS A NECESSITY—BUT "INTOXICATION" is a vice! For instance, David T. Campbell of No. 3 Sherman street, Roxbury, paid $91.39 taxes in 1921. His previous tax bill was only $73.

ONE OF THE LITTLE WHIRLWINDS IN "THE WHIRL OF NEW YORK!" NANCY Gibbs makes the bill show up to the majestic a little easier to look at, although no dramatic ed says it wouldn't be an easy job to find one more cheek full of entertainment.

THEY SAY BRAINS AND BEAUTY ARE NEVER ON SPEAKING TERMS, BUT cross your eyes with this group of Boston University girls! They are members of the Phi Beta Kappa Society of the College of Liberal Arts, B. U., where brains is the ticket of admission. Initiated last night. Left to right: Ann Feltus, Daisy Bapbort, Amy Corliss, Leona Sampson, Harriet Kilgore and Ruth Tuttle.

See the News of the World at All Leading Theatres Showing International News—Released by Universal Film Exchange

BIG SHAKEUP IS CHINESE CHIEF COMING AT CITY HALL

Discharges of a number of employees at City Hall will be made during the next few days.

Whether these removals are connected with the controversy between Mayor James M. Curley and Martin M. Lonsamey, "boss" of Ward 5, is not known. But—

City Hall is honeycombed with Lonsamey's henchmen, members of the Hendricks Club.

Aud Mayor Curley has said that "there will be quite a few removals" shortly. He also announced that he had made twenty-one salary increases in the City Hall staff.

"Will there be any salary cuts?" he was asked.

"NO MEN TELL NO TALKS," he said.

He said, with his well-known smile, "there will be no salary cuts. A man whose salary is cut is of no further service to the city. But, as I said, men tell no tales; if a man is removed outright, he can do no harm."

Will there be general removals and which department will be affected? The Mayor was asked.

"I'd rather not say just now, but there will be quite a few removals."

Many followers of Lonsamey have for years held important city positions, some being paid as high as $4,000. All of these, except the heads of departments, are under the civil service and if removed could demand a public hearing.

DENIES PAYING CULLEY.

Merrill, Bartholomew J. Fyher, whom Lonsamey charged on the floor of the House of Representatives with paying Curley, before he became mayor, to take a civil service examination for him, has sworn out an affidavit denying the charge and branding Lonsamey as a deliberate liar.

The affidavit, sworn to before Notary Public Chester Macomber, was issued from Mayor Curley's office. Fyher was formerly a bartender. At present he is listed by the city directory as a clerk, at No. 39 Green street, West End, with his home in East Cambridge.

The most important increase made by the Mayor is that of Charles F. Boman, brother of School Committee Fred L. Bogan, and an ardent Curley supporter. He is employed in the street laying out department, and his pay is raised from $1,700 a year to $2,500.

CHINESE CHIEF DECLARES HIS INDEPENDENCE

Tientsin, May 11 (By the Associated Press).—An independent government has been set up by General Chang Tiao-Lin, defeated military governor of Mukden.

A declaration of independence issued from his headquarters at Lunchow says that, having been disavowed by the President of authority in Manchuria, Mongolia and Jehol, he henceforth repudiates all instructions from the President and all treaties negotiated by him.

The declaration sets forth that Chang intends to make favorable treaties with friendly powers in the name of the region unremoved, and will assume responsibility for the protection of foreign lives and property there. Foreign diplomats must communicate with him at Lunchow.

News from the Kaping mining area is increasingly grave. The American military forces which are in charge of the railway in that section are considering the advisability of withdrawing all foreigners. If this step is taken it will probably result in irreparable damage to the mining property.

SEEK MOTIVE IN CLEVELAND MURDER

By the Associated Press.

Cleveland, May 12.—Aaron Silberman, husband of Mrs. Helen Silberman, found dead in his home, an East End apartment, yesterday, and his brother, Charles Aaron, announced today that they will spend every dollar they possess to run down the murderer.

According to the police, the slayer of Mrs. Silberman was a black-and-white and the crime was committed fifteen minutes after her husband had gone to his office.

Until the police account for a three-carat diamond ring, an opal ring set with small diamonds, and a white gold pearl ring, which were found on the woman's fingers, they can give no other motive for the crime than robbery.

These rings are missing. A diamond brooch was found in Mrs. Silberman's bedroom.

One of two men arrested in connection with the crime will be given further examination by police today. The second man arrested, a police, was released.

BETTY ALDEN'S COMMENT ON BOSTON SOCIETY

Many North Shore Houses Leased by the Smart Set

By BETTY ALDEN

WITH the surge of society North Shoreward will under way, there are no end of transactions concerning the leasing or selling of many of the magnificent estates lining the shore.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Kenneth Howard of Boston have taken one of the J. Warren Merrill houses, "Rockhurst," on Smith's Point, Manchester, for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Howard arrived on the shore the latter part of last month for a long season. They spent several weekends during the Winter and early Spring at the Essex County Club, which, by the way, was the scene of numerous festivities for the all-year round colony along the shore.

Samuel Eliot of Boston has purchased the Charles S. Dana estate in Manchester. The estate is next to that of Mr. Eliot's sister, Mrs. Richard Sears Levering (Mary Eliot), and not far from that of his other sister, Mrs. Frederick N. Burham (Rosamond Eliot). The Eliots moved into their new estate the last week of April.

Also of interest to members of the Boston colony along the shore is the leasing of Mrs. F. T. Bradbury's house, "Lilithoe," at Smith's Point, Manchester, to the William Whitmans, who have taken the place for the coming season. The Carl P. Demetris of Commonwealth avenue have leased Richard Henry Dana's estate in Manchester for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Dana (Mrs. James Mumford) are spending the Summer abroad, having sailed very shortly after their marriage, which was solemnized on February 25 in Emmanuel Church.

A group of young girls are to be on hand as teachers at the performance of "A Vagabond in Fairyland," which is being presented this afternoon at Jordan Hall for the benefit of the Boston Music School Settlement. Any entertainment given in aid of the latter never fails to arouse the interest of a goodly portion of Boston society folk, and today's event is running true to form.

"A Vagabond in Fairyland" is an operatic fantasy written by Miss Jane Higby, who is said to be doing some splendid things. The program is under the direction of Laura Dail and Stetson Humphrey, the director of the school. Mrs. Charles H. Bond of Commonwealth avenue, president of the school, has devoted no end of her time to making a success of this performance, as has her daughter, Mrs. Frank H. Stearns (Edith Bond).

Among the girls who have volunteered to usher at this afternoon's performance are the Misses Beatrice Farmer, Miriam Dinneen, Rosamond Abbott, Olivia Churchill, Susan Sturgis and Rebekah Hobbs.

MRS. JAMES J. CABOT (Catherine Rush) was among the hostesses who entertained at dinner preceding the brilliant assembly given last night at Brattle Hall in aid of the Cambridge Hospital.

MRS. JAMES J. CABOT.

Among others who entertained were Mr. and Mrs. Theodore C. Baker (Edith Prescott) of Coolidge Hill road, Mrs. Eliot S. Emerson, Mrs. Arthur S. Brooks (Elizabeth Harrington) of Ash street, Mrs. Robert W. Knowles (Amy Thorne) of Longfellow Park, Mrs. Wayland M. Mott of Hawthorne street, Mrs. Joseph G. Thorne (Annie Longfellow) of school street, Mrs. W. H. Roll of DeWolf Sampson (Mary Ware) of Brattle street, Mrs. William B. Thayer (Elizabeth Ware) of Berkeley street and Mrs. Robert Walcott.

Even at this early date there is been interest in the coming Newport Horse Show, scheduled to take place at the Newport Casino on August 22, 23 and 24. As everyone probably knows, this event is one of the half-dozen, both in the social and equine world, and each year a motley contingent from Boston makes the trip to Rhode Island's exclusive watering place to be present at the event.

Owing to the death in France last Fall of Prescott Lawrence it was necessary to elect additional officers to the committee for this year's show. Mr. Lawrence, a Harvard '72 man, was well known in Boston, where he was a member of the Somerset Club. Mrs. Lawrence (Katherine Bulkeley) and her daughter, Miss Katherine Lawrence, who returned from abroad a few months ago, will spend the Summer at Newport, where they have already paid several visits.

To return to the horse show—Henry F. Ellipse, chairman and Reginald C. Vanderbilt and Dr. Thomas Ashton remain as members. Those newly elected are Frank K. Sturges and Alfred B. Mackay, the president of the National Horse Show Association of New York.

There will be a number of new classes added with prizes this year, which will still attract those who both exhibit and attend. The proceeds from the show will be turned over to the Newport Community Centre Association, Inc. This will assist in the preservation of the Friends Meeting House, a Quaker institution established in Newport 200 years ago.

There will be a number of new classes added with prizes this year, which will still attract those who both exhibit and attend. The proceeds from the show will be turned over to the Newport Community Centre Association, Inc. This will assist in the preservation of the Friends Meeting House, a Quaker institution established in Newport 200 years ago.

There will be a number of new classes added with prizes this year, which will still attract those who both exhibit and attend. The proceeds from the show will be turned over to the Newport Community Centre Association, Inc. This will assist in the preservation of the Friends Meeting House, a Quaker institution established in Newport 200 years ago.

There will be a number of new classes added with prizes this year, which will still attract those who both exhibit and attend. The proceeds from the show will be turned over to the Newport Community Centre Association, Inc. This will assist in the preservation of the Friends Meeting House, a Quaker institution established in Newport 200 years ago.

There will be a number of new classes added with prizes this year, which will still attract those who both exhibit and attend. The proceeds from the show will be turned over to the Newport Community Centre Association, Inc. This will assist in the preservation of the Friends Meeting House, a Quaker institution established in Newport 200 years ago.

There will be a number of new classes added with prizes this year, which will still attract those who both exhibit and attend. The proceeds from the show will be turned over to the Newport Community Centre Association, Inc. This will assist in the preservation of the Friends Meeting House, a Quaker institution established in Newport 200 years ago.

There will be a number of new classes added with prizes this year, which will still attract those who both exhibit and attend. The proceeds from the show will be turned over to the Newport Community Centre Association, Inc. This will assist in the preservation of the Friends Meeting House, a Quaker institution established in Newport 200 years ago.

ELENE URGES AMERICA TO AID EUROPE

Philadelphia, May 12.—Opinion differed in discussion today before the American Academy of Political and Social Science as to whether American co-operation was necessary for European rehabilitation.

Edward A. Flinn, Boston merchant, while Elmer Davis of the New York Times said he could see no reason to anticipate any such active collaboration of America in European affairs as seems to be expected by some persons of both sides of the Atlantic.

"If the rehabilitation of Europe is to come within the present generation, if new wars are to be avoided and we are to have a stabilized world during our lifetime," said Mr. Flinn, "it seems clear that American co-operation is indispensable."

All that is best in the American people, he added, would make an irresistible force that would demand this co-operation.

He declared that American aloofness had driven Germany into the arms of Russia.

A general realization exists in Europe, Mr. Davis added, that American loans will come only when conditions promise stability.

Billion Reduction in Notes

Washington, May 12.—Comptroller of the Currency is reducing the government's staff of currency credit by $1 billion. There are approximately $2,000,000,000 in Federal Reserve notes in circulation, officials said, compared with about $3,000,000,000 in 1920.

Asks Forgiveness of Mother for Killing Girl

"Please forgive me for being so mean as to take your daughter's life. She was gentle to the last," wrote Charles H. Fowler to his mother-in-law, a few hours after he killed his pretty nineteen-year-old wife, Hortense A. Fowler, and committed suicide in their apartment at No. 133 Hemenway street.

The mother-in-law, Mrs. William Tremblay of Aledo street, Brockton, has just received the farewell letter, which is one of the strangest documents ever penned. Here it is:

"My Dear Mrs. Tremblay— Please forgive me for being so mean as to take your daughter's life, as I am also taking my own. I loved your daughter devotedly. Poor little Hortense, she was gentle to the last. May God bless you souls."

Colonel Adams came to Massachusetts in 1911 to become superintendent of the Concord Reformatory. While in that position he established a number of marked reforms, including military drill for the prisoners, which brought Massachusetts into the front rank of the States with modern prison systems.

Former Governor McCall in 1916 appointed Colonel Adams director of prisons for the State, and in 1917 Colonel Adams prevailed upon the Governor's Council to commute the sentence of Jesse Pomeroy from life imprisonment to ten years.

In 1918 Colonel Adams resigned. He was sixty years old and served with the State Militia Volunteers during the war with Spain. He was for many years president of the American Prison Association.

THREE SLAIN IN ULSTER AMBUSH

Belfast, Ire., May 12.—Three men were reported killed in the ambush of a lorry at Hilltown, near Newry. Reinforcements of cavalry were sent and a sharp engagement followed. The police arrested twenty-five persons, including the Rev. Father McCarter. The priest was released immediately.

ADAMS, ONCE PRISONS HEAD, IS DEAD

Col. Cyrus B. Adams, formerly director of Massachusetts prisons, and one of the foremost authorities on prison reform in the United States, is dead at his home in St. Charles, Ill., where he was president of the St. Charles School for Boys, according to advices received today at the State House.

Colonel Adams came to Massachusetts in 1911 to become superintendent of the Concord Reformatory. While in that position he established a number of marked reforms, including military drill for the prisoners, which brought Massachusetts into the front rank of the States with modern prison systems.

Former Governor McCall in 1916 appointed Colonel Adams director of prisons for the State, and in 1917 Colonel Adams prevailed upon the Governor's Council to commute the sentence of Jesse Pomeroy from life imprisonment to ten years.

In 1918 Colonel Adams resigned. He was sixty years old and served with the State Militia Volunteers during the war with Spain. He was for many years president of the American Prison Association.

Jordan Marsh Company

Where Quality Is Always Dependable

It's a Most Convenient Place to Shop The Street Floor of Our Annex

This Spring the Maiden's Fancy Turns to EARRINGS

—In fact, matrons, too, delight in them.

1. Jet Studs, with bevel oval hoop pendants, solid gold wires and sterling silver top—$3.00.
2. Very long lapis lazuli color Ball Earrings, with sterling silver tops and gold wires—$5.00.
3. Jade Green Studs, with large oval pendants, trimmed with gold filigree work, solid gold wires, sterling silver top—$8.75.

Latour Toilet Goods

Made Especially for Jordan Marsh Company.

The Latour products are made up to our own specifications and are most reasonably priced. Under this label are included the popular toilet preparations favored by both men and women.

Latour Liquid Complexion Cream,	45c and 75c
Cold Cream,	50c and 89c
Lemon Cream,	75c and 1.25
Vanishing Cream,	50c
Cerate Cream,	50c and 1.00
Latour Talcum,	75c
Odors: Violet, Rose, Heliotrope, Lilac and Bouquet.
Toilet Water, Violet and Lilac,	1.00, 1.75, 2.50
Violet Perfume,	2.50, 4.50, 6.50
Anti-Wrinkle Lotion,	75c to 1.25
Benzoin, Glycerine and Rose Water,	35c
Glycerine and Rose Water,	23c and 35c

Electrical Stereopticons!

They're bully good fun for boys—they can project lantern slides, photographs, drawings or printed matter. Absolutely safe because they can be attached to ordinary home electric wiring. Of course, they are also suitable for church, club or minstrel work.

Models from $6.00 to 135.00

Created by Cosmopolitan Productions

"The Beauty Shop"

Raymond Hitchcock
And an All-Comedy All-Star Cast

CONSIDER THIS CAST:
Raymond Hitchcock, The Fairbanks Twins, James J. Corbett, Billy B. Van, Louise Fazenda, Montagu Love, Diana Allen, Laurence Wheat.

Adapted from "The Beauty Shop," a musical comedy in which "Hitchcock" played to capacity for many months on Broadway.

Love! Laughs! Thrills!

Directed by Edward Dillon. Scenario by Doty Hobart from the musical comedy by Renold Wolf and Channing Pollock.

Titles by "Bugs" Bear and Tommy Gray

All Next Week, Opening Monday at
MODERN and BEACON Theatres
Presented by Famous Players-Lasky Corporation
It's a Paramount Picture

WHAT HAPPENED ^{To} The KATZENJAMMER KIDS?

This is Only One of the Mysteries in the Children's

MAGIC BOOK

8 Pages of Moving Cut-Outs,
National Dolls, Magic Ink
Pictures and Funny Games

Free With
Tomorrow's

BOSTON SUNDAY ADVERTISER

NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST

SUNDAY NEWSPAPER

The Auctioned Bride

*Spends the Night in
An Abandoned
Shack on a
Desolate
Island
Alone With a Murderer,
in Anthony
Carlyle's
Gripping
Story,*

"A Honeymoon for Three"

*the Newest,
Most Thrilling
Romance of
This Celebrated
Author.*

Read It in
Tomorrow's

BOSTON SUNDAY ADVERTISER

NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST

SUNDAY  NEWSPAPER

80 Summer St. — BOSTON AMERICAN — A Paper for People Who Think — Largest Evening Circulation in New England — SATURDAY, MAY 13, 1922 — Phone Main 5180

How "Babe" Ruth Was Swindled Out of $130,000

Margaret Hill, Queen of the Underworld, Who Worked in Partnership With the Aristocrats of Crime, Trapping Millionaires at Their Fashionable Playgrounds Explains the Way the "Battering Bambino" Was Trimmed Playing the Ponies at a Havana Race Track

To Tap the Oil That Destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah

American Enterprise to Release the Natural Treasures of the Holy Land Which Science Believes Wiped Out the Wicked "Cities of the Plain" and Caused, Perhaps, the Fall of the Walls of Jericho.

How the Spooks Have Imposed on the Great "Sherlock Holmes"

Transparent Tricks Which Conan Doyle Insists Are Supernatural. Explained by Mr. Joseph L. Rinn, the Expert on Spirit Medium Frauds, Who Exposed the Famous Madame Palladino.

A Real Stage Tragedy More Shocking Than the Plot of the Play

Miss Carpenter, the Heroine and Leading Lady Was to Leap Into the Hawaiian Volcano and Be Rescued by the Hero — But Accidentally She Swished Her Grass Dress Into a Gas Jet and Was Burned to Death in Her Lover's Arms

Nick Carter, Dime Novel Hero, Killed At Last
Wireless Treatment At Home for Obesity and Nerves

What They Do At a Cannibal Feast
A Full Page in Exquisite Colors by Nell Brinkley
"Let's Open All Prisons," by Bernard Shaw

All in Tomorrow's

BOSTON ADVERTISER
NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST SUNDAY NEWSPAPER

10 Cents Everywhere

THE THIMBLE THEATRE

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

Now Showing—"The One Exception."
Monday—"At Last, a Truthful Fisherman."

THEN THE FUN BEGAN

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

THE GENERAL

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

Kabibble Kabaret

Copyright 1922 by Geo. McManus. Registered U. S. Patent Office.

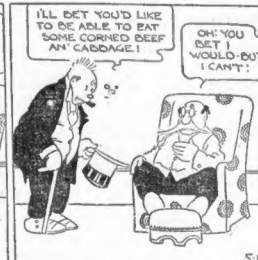

Come here, everybody...
MY HUSBAND DESERTED ME AND MY BOY WILL HE EVER COME BACK?
YES—WHEN THE BOY GETS OLD ENOUGH TO GO TO WORK.
—POB L.M.

BRINGING UP FATHER

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

DAILY IN THE BOSTON AMERICAN AND IN COLORS IN THE BOSTON SUNDAY ADVERTISER

By Geo. McManus

POLLY AND HER PALS

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

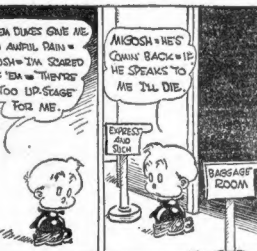

Mike's Memory Needs Training

JERRY ON THE JOB

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

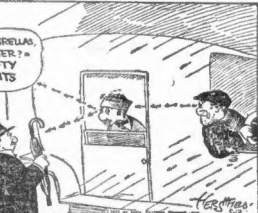

Can't Get Fresh with This Gent

ABIE THE AGENT

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

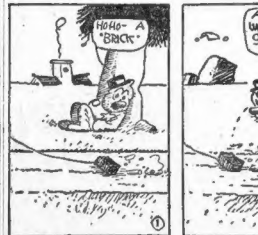

It Never Rains but It Pours

KRAZY KAT

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

Complicated Fishing

US BOYS

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

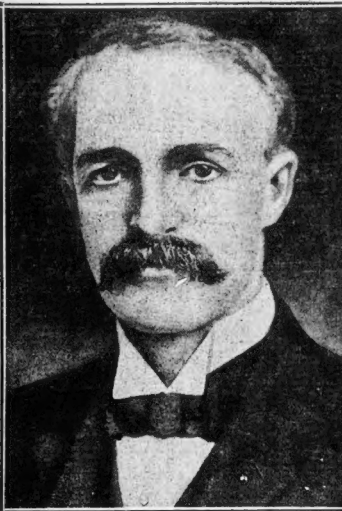

For Married Men Only

Boom Boston trade with a municipal owned waterfront and wharves.—City Councillor John A. Donoghue.

A Real Man for Governor

He Will Be Nominated If Farmers, Workers and Constructive Business Men Understand Their Own Interests
Copyright, 1932, Star Company.

GIFFORD PINCHOT, CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR AT THE PENNSYLVANIA PRIMARIES

This is a man who has devoted his intelligence, education, fortune and strength to the welfare of his fellow citizens, as he understands it. And he understands it from the viewpoint of an unselfish, well educated, earnest, intelligent American.

Mr. Pinchot is a candidate for the nomination for Governor of Pennsylvania on the Republican ticket, and he will have the votes of those that understand and appreciate character, integrity and ability.

Mr. Pinchot, having no axe to grind, has represented in his public career and throughout his life the real interests of the real people of the United States.

He has earned the gratitude of the whole nation by his efforts to preserve the forests, by his fight against those that would monopolize the country's water power, and against those that would destroy the forests that retain the water power.

Mr. Pinchot is not a conservative, and not a radical in the usual sense of the word. He is an excellent representative of the public-spirited type of intelligent American citizen.

He knows that the prosperity of the United States depends on the AVERAGE well being of all the country's inhabitants.

He knows that you cannot raise a building or a civilization unless you raise it from the foundations, raising the whole structure at one time.

Mr. Pinchot throughout his career has proved himself the sincere and intelligent friend of the farmers, of all good workers, and of all legitimate constructive business men in the United States.

His nomination at the primaries would be a victory for common sense and political wisdom.

His election as Governor, which undoubtedly would follow his nomination, would put at the head of the great State of Pennsylvania a man of highest character, thoroughly understanding the practical interests of all of the citizens, a man of whom the great State of Pennsylvania might well be proud.

The election soon to come will be, not a test of Mr. Pinchot's fitness to be Governor of Pennsylvania, for that has long since been proved, but a test of public knowledge and appreciation of those that serve the public faithfully and disinterestedly.

For a Horse, Yes

For Ourselves, No!

Copyright, 1932, Star Company

Human beings that know so much about animals, automobiles and other machinery, and so little about YOURSELVES, read this:

When Morvich, the great racehorse, was put on the car carrying him from one race track to another, his trainer immediately cut off his regular seven quarts of oats per day.

"No heating food, of course, while the horse is traveling and inactive," said he. That's right and wise, says Mr. Human Being.

And the same Mr. Human Being gets on the train to travel from New York to California and spends the time in the dining car eating as much as he can possibly hold. He does the same on the ocean steamer, and in general from the cradle to the grave he eats in a fashion that would make of any first-class racehorse a tenth class horse.

Only eat the food that you know you are going to use up. Only eat as much as you can change into blood, bone, flesh, muscle and nerve power. Your own judgment should tell you what to order.

Leave the table while you are still hungry and you will leave the table when very old.

BOSTON AMERICAN

Largest Evening Circulation in New England—May 13, 1922

For Five-Cent Fares

Something Should Be Done by Legislature at Once—Investigation of Control Act Will Not Do It

When are we going to do something with the Legislature to get a reduction in the carfare?

The Boston American has said several times that an investigation of the methods by which the Public Control Act, under which the public is operating our street railway system, was passed, would not only fail to reduce the fare, but in the wildly remote event that it should result in the abolition of the Public Control Act, that result would tend to increase fares or at least prevent that gradual reduction which is now going on under public operation.

The Legislature is rapidly dying this year and if anything is to be done to get a five-cent fare or a considerable reduction in the present fare, it ought to be done immediately.

As we said the other day, any law which is passed by corruption ought to be vigorously investigated and those guilty ought to be exposed and punished, because corruption in the passing of laws is poison at the roots of the Republic. It ought to be investigated and exposed as a matter of political morality.

But this has nothing whatever to do with the five-cent fare. It will not get the five-cent fare and it will not reduce the present fare a hundred thousandth part of a cent. It will tend to prevent the fare from being reduced without legislative aid by the efficiencies of public operation—a gradual reduction for which our people do not want to wait.

Let us separate the two things, the investigation of corruption and the search for ways and means of getting a reduction in carfare. Let us have both, if necessary, but let us not abandon all effort to get a five-cent fare in order to have an investigation, which will not reduce the fare and may prevent its reduction.

Fuller Still Progressive

Lieutenant-Governor Rejoices at Revival of Spirit of Roosevelt Within Republican Party

We are glad to see that Lieutenant-Governor Fuller has not followed so many of his old Rooseveltian progressives into the ranks of the Republican Old Guard.

At Ladies' Night of the Men's Club of the Mattapan Methodist Church, Mr. Fuller rejoiced in the fact that there is "a revival of the progressive spirit of Roosevelt within the ranks of the Republican party, which augurs well for the future of the nation." He speaks of the nomination of Senator Beveridge, an old Rooseveltian progressive, on a progressive platform, and the candidacy of Gifford Pinchot for Governor of Pennsylvania, as favorable signs of the times. They are good signs of the times.

The defeat of Congressman Copley from Southern Illinois by an unknown young man upon a platform denouncing the Zach-Cummins railroad law, under which freight rates and railroad fares have been raised even beyond the limit of what traffic could bear; the maladministration of the Federal Reserve act, itself a good law, so misapplied as almost to ruin our entire agricultural population; the disposition to intrigue through entangling alliances with foreign nations, and the levying of an embargo for the benefit of a bloated trust is another good sign of the times. Today you can cut the gloom of the Old Guard Republicans with a knife.

So it is also a good sign of the times to find that Mr. Fuller's progressive flag is still nailed to his political mast.

State Sewage a Nuisance

Dumped Continuously Into Boston Harbor, Polluting Bathing Beaches and Other Shores

There is rather a serious nuisance in Boston Harbor for which the State, and not the city government, is responsible. The Commonwealth is dumping the sewage of the towns lying within the Metropolitan District into Boston Harbor, under circumstances very disagreeable, if not dangerous, to the people of Boston and to the shores adjacent to Boston, and particularly to the hundreds of thousands who enjoy the bathing opportunities of Boston beaches.

If the Commonwealth took the care to make the sewage which it pours into Boston Harbor as inoffensive as the city of Boston takes care to do, the nuisance would not exist. Boston carries its sewage to Moon Island, there holds it in a reservoir until wind and tide are favorable to carry it out to sea, and then empties it into the ocean. On the other hand, the Commonwealth carries the sewage of the towns near Boston Deer Island and Nut Island, and there empties it CONTINUOUSLY through the day without reference to wind or tide.

Consequently the sewage is being emptied into the water as often when the tide and wind are carrying it toward the shore as when the tide and wind are carrying it away from the shore. Frequently you see a scummy, dark, dirty water along our beaches. That is quite often the fouling of the water by this shore-borne sewage.

The State can at least do as much to protect the people as the city, and we suggest that it is about time that the State authorities began to give attention to this nuisance.

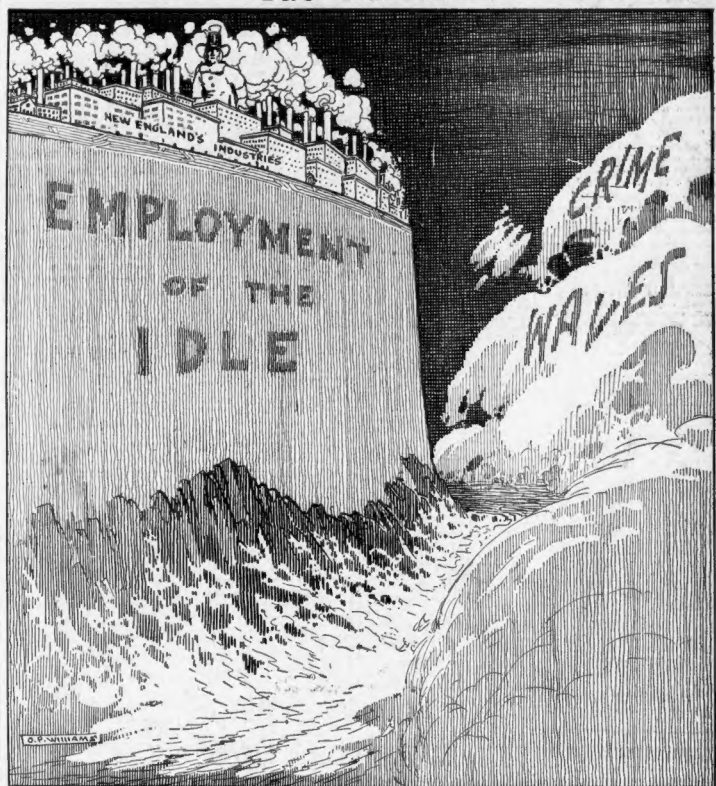

John F. Stevens

The people of metropolitan Boston have suffered a great loss in the sudden death of Mr. John F. Stevens, a member of the Board of Public Trustees in control of the management of our street railway system.

Governor McCall appointed Mr. Stevens as a representative of organized labor on the board, and while faithful to his old associations, he never forgot that he represented the general public. It was a very important position which he filled—that of sharing in the political management of our great street railway system.

We hope that Governor Cox will be as wise in appointing his successor as Governor McCall was wise in appointing Mr. Stevens.

The Bulwark

Somebody's Birthday

Copyright, 1932, by The Best Reading, Inc.

Today is the anniversary of your birth, you should seriously cultivate your will power. For if you will to do a thing you must do it. You are one of those analytical and judicious people who dream and plan and criticize a project before you do it, and when you finally decide to do it, all the romance is gone and you seem to be doing something you have done before.

You should obey your impulses even if they do occasionally mislead you, for in the long run your instincts are infallible. Of course you will find it no easy problem to satisfy all your instincts in this civilization, but you should follow them as closely as you can, and when you can not subliminate them consciously, do not try to reason them out of existence. What you need is more frontal and less introspection.

Today is one of generally unfortunate omen. Avoid all decisions, and particularly those involving your intimate relations. A child born today will be rich and unscrupulous and erratic, but easily amused.

Famous persons born today: John Sullivan Dwight—Music critic.

Joseph L. Conte—Naturalist and geologist.

Daniel G. Hixson—Surgeon and ethnologist.

Arthur Roth—Architect.

Stars and Stripes

John D. says it is hard to give away a million. We'll say it is.

Ford has bought 10,000,000 nuts. Almost enough to start another solvent republic.

Any man who pays $2 to have a moustache put in a dollar watch will never be a great captain of finance.

"Aha!" exclaimed the Pullman porter as he pulled the flask from under the passenger's pillow. "I have learned the secret of death."

Many a man and wife pull together, but in opposite directions.

You have no backbone, but that does not prevent your putting up a good front.

They will never have a real drawing card in shape of a champion boxer, but they will have a traffic cop against a taxicab driver.

Seen and Heard

By Daily

PATROLMAN PATRICK H. LAHEY, attached to the city collector's office at City Hall, is receiving the congratulations of his friends on his daring feat of five nights ago. "Pat" proved that he is just as young as ever when he commandeered an automobile, riding on the running board and brought a runaway horse to a standstill.

"SMILING JIM" DONOVAN had better look to his laurels when it comes to "smiling." Have you ever noticed the "smile" with which CITY COLLECTOR "BILLY" McMORROW greets you? Just go in and pay your poll tax, it is worth $5 to see it.

COUNCILLOR GEORGE F. GILBOY, nicknamed the "baby of the Council," has done pretty well for a youngster so far. He has obtained a $50,000 appropriation for improvements at the Gibson street playground, placed hundreds of exercise men at work, blocked a $5,000 saloon of oil and gasoline proposition in the Dorchester residential section and has made himself generally useful to the people who elected him.

MAYOR CURLEY is determined to get some rest during his first year in office, of any rate. Demands have been so great for his appearance at different banquets and social functions that he has had to call a halt.

DANIEL MURRAY, civil service clerk, of the Public Works Department at City Hall, has the enormous task of drafting from the civil service list of workers to be placed in employment of that department. "DAN" has to explain the method of drawing names to many applicants for positions whose names never appeared on the list.

J. ALFRED MITCHELL, former city auditor, with an early suburban, visited City Hall, where he was greeted by his many friends. He paid his respects to the present city auditor, RUFERT S. CARVEN, and other officials.

CITY TREASURER JOHN J. CURLEY has installed several rapid-fire cashier machines in the treasury office. It is a great help on days when the city employees are paid.

EX LIBRIS

By Zoe B. Fable

AUTOBIOGRAPHIES these days are about as scarce as Ford. Successful autobiographies have found, like Ford, that their is a dependable vehicle.

Chaney M. Dewey is one of the latest who has been unable to resist any longer the importunities of his friendly let down (to the length of 400 pages) the events of his life which he finds of such keen interest to the public.

It is a certainty that the life of this particular gentleman is one in which the public has or should have an interest, for he is a man of years which has covered a period of remarkable development in the United States. Further, he has been fortunate enough to have an active part in both the industrial and political movements of the times.

Photo on Your Wedding Ring

CHICAGO, May 13.—Did he pop the question while walking on the beach, riding in a taxi, sitting on the steps or in a vine-covered arbor?

"Wherever it was, girls, you will not be in style now unless you have a picture of the trying place engraved on the plighting band.

The new fad was revealed today by a goldsmith who has more business than he can attend to. He has been forced to hire several assistants to engrave lakes and hills and trees and moons on engagement rings.

It is as fashionable now for prospective brides to have etched on their rings the scenes of their capture as it was in ancient times for emperors to record the story of their conquests on tablets.

Where the wedding was done on the company's time, typewriters and adding machines will be pictured; if it was done in the park, nothing will be more appropriate than the sketch of a toy balloon and the lion's house.

The fad is not without its advantages in later life. If, in the days to come, hubby becomes a grocer because break-fast is light or he cannot find his slippers at night, she can promptly quiet him by turning her ring so he can see the replica of the place where he pleaded for lifetime bliss.

Smiles

ENTITLED TO A CHANCE in Deadlock, North Dakota, every public office is filled by a woman. Well, it's no more than fair that something is being done for the women who live in Deadlock, North Dakota.

BLAME IT ON KENEBAW St. Louis has a baseball player who is threatening to beat Babe Ruth's record. Let Judge Landis be making preparations right away to serve as an alibi.

A MILEBAND TITLE Somebody has written a book about "The Psychic Life of Insanity." We are assured, however, that it has nothing to do with the war profiteers who are supposed to be a bonus for the soldiers.

TAKE YOUR TIME, FOLKS. An eminent English doctor says every one ought to have a post-mortem for the benefit of science. He may be right, but we have a positive disinclination to be in any hurry to accommodate science in this way.